“FIGHT FOR STONE MOUNTAIN”

After having discussions with CIC Donnie Kennedy and members of the Executive Council, Sons of Confederate Veterans National has agreed to join the Georgia Division with the “Fight for Stone Mountain” initiative.

They agree that Stone Mountain Memorial Park, the largest Confederate Monument in the country, is a National Monument to the Confederacy. The Memorial Carving depicts President Jefferson Davis, Generals Robert E. Lee and General Thomas “Stonewall” Jackson - all National leaders of the Confederate States of America. Additionally, the Memorial Lawn beneath the Carvings has separate stations displaying the flags of every Confederate state.

The Charge to the Georgia Division

To you, Sons of Confederate Veterans, we submit the vindication of the Cause for which we fought; to your strength will be given the defense of the Confederate soldier’s good name, the guardianship of his history, the emulation of his virtues, the perpetuation of those principles which he loved and which you love also, and those ideals which made him glorious and which you also cherish.

Remember, it is your duty to see that the true history of the South is presented to future generations.

The Georgia Division Commander’s Report

Brothers,

First of all, let me wish you and your families a very Merry Christmas and a blessed new year. We do have so much to be thankful for, and Christmas not only reminds us of the birth of our Lord Savior Jesus Christ but of how important our families are. It also reminds me of the hard work and the sacrifices our Ancestors have made through the ages pioneering, settling and building the greatest country on the planet with all the liberties and conveniences we enjoy today.

As many of you are aware our liberties can be stolen from us at any time if we don’t remain vigilant as patriots on the forefront of the fight to maintain the Christian morals and Constitutional principles that our Country was founded on. That requires us to always remain engaged, ready to take a stand, to give freely of our time and resources. The evils of wokeness, socialism, and communism are at our front door now more than ever. It appears that half of the people in our Country have gone mad through years of leftist indoctrination.

Most of our Politicians have no backbone to stand for the right, the Politicians on the left have completely gone wacko crazy beyond belief. Our judicial system is corrupted to the core, the letter of the law and Constitutions means nothing to these judicial officers, nor are they held accountable for their actions, but I assure you we would be.

The older I get the more I see that our Confederate forefathers had it right, sometimes reconciliation is impossible with two entirely different types of government system, morals and principles that just don’t mix. 250,000 Confederate Heroes died trying to prevent what we see happening in this Country and in Washington DC today. I just hope and pray that our great President can turn the boat around before it falls off the waterfall. I am afraid he needs more time.

So let me step off my soap box preaching to the choir.

Let me explain my frustrations, in 2019 the doctrine of sovereign immunity, which is a legal principle that prevents governments from being sued without their consent which originated from monarch system (the King is always right), was voted unanimously to be removed from the Georgia State Constitution by the Georgia State Assembly, rare time they got it right. In 2020 there was a Constitutional Referendum on the general election ballot that many of you may remember voting on, that removed sovereign immunity from the Georgia Constitution as a defense and the citizens of Georgia voted overwhelming to remove it at 74.9% in favor.

But the removal of sovereign immunity from our Constitution hasn’t stopped the local county politicians and attorneys continuing to use that as a defense in our monument removal lawsuits, specifically in Glynn and Gwinnett Counties where the Superior courts in those counties ruled against us agreeing with the sovereign immunity defense.

We appealed these ruling to the Georgia Court of Appeals believing this would be a common sense reversal being sovereign immunity defense has been repealed in the Georgia Constitution and also Constitutional matters can only be address by the Georgia Supreme court, but the Georgia Court of Appeals ruled in favor of the counties defense of sovereign immunity, and when asked to clarify that ruling being sovereign immunity defense has been removed from the Georgia Constitution, they gave no explanation.

Therefore, in both the Glynn and Gwinnett County lawsuits we applied for writ of certiorari with the Georgia Supreme Court hoping that surely the common sense of the higher Justices would hear these cases and reverse these hideous rulings from the Superior court and the Georgia Court of Appeals. But to our stocking amazement the Georgia Supreme Court denied hearing the cases. When asked in our reconsideration filing to clarify being sovereign immunity defense has been removed in the Georgia Constitution, the response we got was “denied”.

This is especially stocking being in October 2022 the Georgia Supreme Court ruled favorably on our behalf in that all citizens of Georgia have standing to sue these municipalities and counties when they violate the law. But I ask you, what good is it to have standing to sue these municipalities and counties when they violate the law, when the courts turn around and rule that these same municipalities and counties have sovereign immunity and they can’t be brought to justice and sued by the citizens of Georgia. Brothers, this is so wrong and so corrupt.

As of date in the 6 years that we have been fighting these lawsuits against illegally removing our Veteran’s monuments we have yet to have our day in court, over State Law 50-3-1 that is clear and unambiguous, where we should prevail. They have stretched us out to the very end, all the way up to the Georgia Supreme court twice. We had always hoped that we would at least get a fair shake in the higher courts, sadly that’s not the case. My faith in our judicial system is lower than a snake’s belly.

This leads up to our final options in House Bill 467 and Senate Bill 301 that will be at the forefront of the 2026 Legislative Session in January. As indicated on the front page and on page 6 it is imperative that we act now, by contacting your State Representative and State Senators.

Please go visit them at their local offices before the legislative session in January. Write them a letter, email them, give their office a call and ask them for their support for these two Bills. Do all of them visit, write, email and call, they all will have an impact, especially from their constituents.

House Bill 467 and Senate Bill 301 are the same Bill going through separate houses with the hopes that one will prevail. The language in both Bills addresses the issue of sovereign immunity and other housekeeping issues we have discovered over the last 6 years of litigation.

If you need to find out who State Representative and State Senator are go to www.legis.ga.gov/house and go to the House or Senate tabs and you can “Find your Legislator” and also go to your Legislator in the House or Senate and get all their contact information. Please do all you can, we have to get our Veteran’s monument protected and getting these Bills passed that will firm up our State monument protection laws.

Some good news, after conversations with CIC Donnie Kennedy and GEC members, Sons of Confederate Veterans National as wholeheartedly agreed to join forces with the Georgia Division to fight off the changes the Stone Mountain Memorial Association (SMMA) is making in Stone Mountain Memorial Park. SCV National has agreed to help us finically with our on-going lawsuit and build a national effort to support our efforts to keep Stone Mountain as memorial to the Confederacy as indicated in State law. Our campaign will be called “Fight for Stone Mountain” and notifications from the Georgia Division and SCV National will be going out to all our members in the Confederation. We will also be producing video shorts that explain in detail the nature of the offense so our membership will be more informed and hopefully more involved with this fight.

The 50th Annual Captain Henry Wirz memorial sponsored by the Alexander H. Stephens Camp was a great success. It had a record turn-out and CIC Donnie Kennedy had an excellent talk. Many dignitaries were present from SCV National officers to even the President General of the UDC Mrs. Julie N. Hardaway. The food was great and it was an honor to have CIC Kennedy award our very on Martin O’Toole the General Robert E. Lee Service award, one of the highest awards that our organization offers.

I look forward to going to the General Robert Toombs Camp annual Christmas in Dixie celebration on December 6 in Higgston. This is one of the most organized and well done events we have in the Georgia Division from the car show, entertainment, vendor booths and food and all for a good cause. The Toombs Camp goes all out.

Please make plans to attached the annual General Robert E. Lee birthday event in Irvinville at the Jefferson Davis Memorial Park on January 17, 2026 at 11:00. Martin O’Toole will be the keynote speaker on Robert E Lee and we will be having an excellent luncheon dinner with homemade chili and chicken soup with all the fixins.

Fight for Stone Mountain

Compatriots,

As many of you are aware, the Georgia Division, Sons of Confederate Veterans, has been at the forefront of the fight against the Stone Mountain Memorial Association (SMMA) - the State agency created by the Georgia General Assembly to manage the operations of Stone Mountain Memorial Park.

The SMMA has been infected with the “woke” virus and is taking steps to obliterate all Confederate references from the park, intended as a memorial to the Confederacy.

In May 2021, the SMMA voted to remove the Memorial Caving image from the SMMA logo. In truth, the carving had already been removed even before the vote.

The SMMA then relocated the Memorial Flag Terrace to an admittedly less visible location in clear defiance of Georgia law.

Not stopping there, it next removed the War Between the States artifacts exhibited for decades from the Memorial Hall Museum and plans to replace them with new woke exhibits that gives a leftist propaganda line (supposedly “tells the truth”) of Stone Mountain and the Southern struggle for independence. Additionally, many of the new exhibits will be about civil rights. Nothing proposed in the changes follows the will of the people of Georgia as reflected in the law of the State.

The Georgia Division, SCV, has made every effort to work out alternate resolutions with the SMMA. We provided a detailed proposal and video of the benefits of implementing Heritage Tourism (available for viewing at www.gascv.org), suggested other locations for the Memorial Flag Terrace, and offered the SCV input on the new exhibits.

We have notified the SMMA that these changes violated the Official Code of Georgia Sections 50-3-1 and 12-3-190. The Georgia law dictates that SMMA’s duty is to maintain Stone Mountain Memorial Park as a Memorial to the Confederacy. It is not to be a civil rights museum. (There is no shortage of them in the metro Atlanta area.) It is not intended to discuss local neighborhoods. It is not intended to criticize capitalism.

Unfortunately, after multiple notifications and meetings, the SMMA has ignored our efforts to come up with a reasonable alternative that complies with the law. For whatever reason, SMMA has proceeded with plans to make these unlawful and insulting changes.

The Sons of Confederate Veterans has been compelled to file a lawsuit against the SMMA and the State of Georgia for these violations.

After having discussions with CIC Donnie Kennedy and members of the Executive Council, Sons of Confederate Veterans National has agreed to join the Georgia Division with the “Fight for Stone Mountain” initiative.

They agree that Stone Mountain Memorial Park, the largest Confederate Monument in the country, is a National Monument to the Confederacy. The Memorial Carving depicts President Jefferson Davis, Generals Robert E. Lee and General Thomas “Stonewall” Jackson - all National leaders of the Confederate States of America. Additionally, the Memorial Lawn beneath the Carvings has separate stations displaying the flags of every Confederate state.

Now is the hour to join the “Fight for Stone Mountain”.

We have hired a renowned Attorney who is an expert in Statutory law and has an impressive success rate. He has consolidated our multiple lawsuits against the SMMA into one lawsuit. Our new legal team will be working hard to stop these legal violations to keep Stone Mountain Memorial Park a Memorial to the Confederacy as Georgians, speaking through our state laws, have intended.

We need your help in this noble fight. We need your generous donations to help cover the legal expenses. Justice, regrettably, is not cheap.

If we don’t defeat these attempts to change Stone Mountain Park now, the largest Confederate Memorial in the country will be “Gone with the Wind.” Like rust, our enemies do not sleep. The Stone Mountain Action Coalition, which appears to have dominated the SMMA (see their website at <https://stonemountainaction.org/>), has a comprehensive program to destroy the entire purpose of the Park.

A special message for our Georgia compatriots: It is also imperative that you reach out to your Georgia State Representatives, State Senators, and even the Governor’s office with written letters, emails, and phone calls. Asking them to stop the changes that the SMMA is making at Stone Mountain and to clean and maintain the Memorial Carvings.

New short video documentaries have been created to explain what SMMA and their partners in crime, Warner Museums, plan to do with the new woke exhibits at Memorial Hall. These series of short videos that we plan to issue to keep our members and supporters informed of the changes they are planning at Stone Mountain. Check back for updates.

Please take a stand and donate. We assure you that every cent you donate will go to the “Fight for Stone Mountain.” Please go to www.georgiascv.org or mail to the Georgia Division, SCV P,O,Box 1081, Macon, Ga. 31202 to donate on line or by mail.

We are not asked to march through snow without shoes. We are not asked to assault double-shotted cannons and massed muskets as the Confederate heroes did. All that we need to do is make some financial sacrifices and participate in the political system.

Vindicate the sacrifices of your ancestors.

A follow-up status report and another short video will be released soon, continuing to explain the changes the SMMA is trying to make to Stone Mountain Memorial Park.

“URGENT CALL TO ACTION”

After 6 years of litigating the illegal removal of our Confederate Veterans monuments it became apparent that there are modifications required in our current monument protection laws 50-3-1 to close out some loopholes used by our adversaries and also make some legal clarifications to the law to eliminate any ambiguities.

During the 2025 Legislative Session we were able to get Senate Bill 301 entered by our friend Senator Rick Williams and House Bill 467 by our friend and SCV member Alan Powell. Both these Bills are the same, they are duplicates in case if one of them fails to make to the floor of the Senate or House the other acts as a back-up. These Bills were filed midway through the 2025 session and unfortunately wasn't able to make cross-over day to be voted on.

At the start of the 2026 Legislative Session in January both this Bills will be rollover and in committee. This gives us an opportunity now to contract our State Senators and House Representative to ask them to support these “house keeping” measures to strengthen our monument protection laws.

We need all members of the Sons of Confederates and our supporters to reach out to their local State Senators and House Representative between now and January 1, 2026 to ask them to support Senate Bill 301 and House Bill 467. Please reach to them and ask if you can come meet with them at their local district office, maybe ask them out for lunch. Give them a copy of SB 301 or HB 467 and ask if they will support this critical legislation. Below are the primary goals of these Bills to discuss with them. While you are there mention the deplorable conditions of the Memorial Carving at Stone Mountain and the illegal changes the SMMA is making Stone Mountain Memorial Park. State elections are in 2026 don't hesitate to make a campaign contribution if you can, it shows we support them.

Primary goals of Senate Bill 301 & House Bill 467:

- Codifies the Supreme Court decision of October 25, 2022.
- Promotes judicial economy by returning injunctive relief as a specific remedy.
- Conforms all definitions uniformly throughout the Code Section.
- Clarifies misdemeanor responsibility for Code violations.
- Provides a tool for cities and counties to relocate monuments by offering them to 3rd party interested parties to relocate them when all litigation fails.

If you are unable to schedule a meeting with them then please 1. Send them a letter asking them to support, 2. email them, 3. Call their office, do all three they will be handled separately. If you don't know who your State Senator or Representative are go to <https://pluralpolicy.com/find-your-legislator/> and type in your address. If that doesn't work email Tim Pilgrim at timfpilgrim@yahoo.com.

We handed out copies of SB 301 and HB 467 at the Georgia Division Reunion, if you need copies of them emailed to you just email timfpilgrim@yahoo.com or call the Division Office at (478) 305-7862 and we will get them to you.

Brothers now is our time to take action, we have to get our monument protection laws firmed up now while we have a conservative majority in the State House please make every effort to contact your State Senator & House Representative.

The Culture of Complaint

Submitted by Martin K. O’Toole

Most polite people will see something that they do not like and simply turn their heads away and go about their business. In modern America, a substantial portion of the population known in the vernacular as “snowflakes” now make their personal peccadillos into public issues. Amidst wailings and gnashing of teeth ordinary people are faced with the demand that these individuals must have total dominance in all social and political fields lest they be offended. Thus, all of traditional and historical America has come under assault with the late Confederate States of America being the prime object of their grievances.

Recently a college professor either tweeted or stated on Facebook that supporters of President Donald Trump should be murdered. After some time had passed an object of his threats asked the college if anything had ever been done about this. As you will not be surprised to hear, he is still visible on social media and still employed at his job. Apparently, the Secret Service did not spirit him away for an extended Q&A session. In short, nothing appears to have happened.

The college was very casual about why no action was taken. It seems that not one of the deplorables targeted for death bothered to complain about it. It takes little imagination to consider the firestorm that would have erupted in the corporate media and the blogosphere if some conservative professor commented that supporters of Madames Clinton, Harris, Obama or Biden should be murdered. Probably none of the professor’s targets bothered to complain because they rightly expected that nothing would be done to such a highly moral call for homicide.

Thus the college was able to use the lack of complaint as the basis for not doing anything. I think that the professor showed his lack of breeding. But ordinarily I would not be in favor of anything being done to him. However, modern America has “moved on” and people are routinely discharged or punished for saying far less offensive things.

Not long ago a stewardess posted on her private social media account that she did not agree with everything that Black Lives Matter stood for. That was sufficient for the airline that employed her to immediately discharge her. Apparently, since BLM believes that the traditional family structure needs to be dismantled the airline must agree with this radical social policy amongst the other extreme positions the organization takes. At least the airline thinks that complaints that an employee holding the exalted position of flight attendant must have her opinions rigorously punished lest BLM supporters whine and threaten not to use their services. As near as I can tell – and the story has not received excessive coverage – no public complaints were ever made. The airline acted on its own to purge its ranks of such dangerous opinions.

The rules of the game have clearly changed, and it is time that traditional Americans learn the new playbook.

My modest proposal is that when you hear that one of the three power centers of American governance today – the corporate media, “woke” tech and other capitalistic enterprises and the educational establishment – does something suitably stupid that you feel you should complain.

The complaint could be in the form of a phone call, a letter or an email. (Or all three.) You should complain very specifically and to the point.

A gentleman copied me recently on a lengthy missive that he dispatched to an institution. The first page was pretty good. The second and third pages went into detail as to why everybody would have been better off if Abraham Lincoln had been assassinated in 1861. In effect, he was accusing John Wilkes Booth of procrastination.

The first portion of the letter might have had an influence – particularly if dozens of others had accompanied it – but the second and third pages in my opinion completely destroy the credibility of the communication if the reader got that far.

It is unlikely that a letter phone call or email will cause someone to rethink their entire worldview. They simply do not have enough time to read a thousand-page letter or email or listen to a four-hour message on the phone. All that should be done in your complaint is to say that you do not like a certain action or statement. If you can further state that you will not do business with them or donate money or support them in any fashion that is sufficient. I’m of two minds as to whether you should tell them that you are breaking off any business or financial relationship with them immediately. You may want to hold out the possibility that you will continue to deal with them but tell them that if you hear about this bad behavior continuing this that you are through with them and will tell everyone you know about their position. Educational institutions are flush with cash right now. But like Edward G. Robinson in the movie Key Largo, they always want more and will never have enough. Should you donate to them or leave them anything in your will?

To bring it to the specific in Georgia, I am surprised that some of the counties and cities who have threatened or actually have acted to remove Confederate or other traditional American monuments are not deluged with letters, emails and phone calls from outraged constituents. Maybe our people are simply too demoralized.

These public officials are usually elected. In the cases of city managers, they are appointed by elected officials. If there is anything more certainly written in the book of fate it is that these people desire to keep their snouts in the trough. If they think that they are faced with a serious political problem from voters, they will mend their ways.

Some appointed people, albeit less susceptible to public pressure, may be responsive to popular outrage. Take the Stone Mountain Memorial Association as an example. Its board is appointed by the governor. In the present madness swirling around censorship of all things Southern the board members are being beseeched to take such actions as covering up the world’s largest bas-relief carving with concrete. Apparently, they have finally figured out that removing the carving by “sandblasting” as proposed by that frequently failed candidate Stacey Abrams could not be accomplished before the sun goes supernova. But there could well have been method to their madness. Since it would take millennia to wear away the igneous rock, I can see the work crowd viewing this as a permanent government job for generations of their friends.

And in many respects the complainers are getting their way. The United Daughters of the Confederacy erected Confederate flags at the trailhead up to the summit of the mountain during the Centennial of the War for Southern Independence. This is the area most heavily trafficked by visitors to the Park. But the whining woke demanded it be removed. The Stone Mountain Memorial Association Board responded by moving it to a much less visited spot – in violation of Georgia law (see Official Code of Georgia Section 50-3-1). The carving of President Davis and Generals Lee and Jackson was removed from the logo of a park dedicated to Confederate memorialization. People coming to a park dedicated to memorializing the Confederacy might be shocked, offended and triggered to see such. And speaking of the carving, look at how badly it is maintained. Again, this was a demand of the perpetually discontented.

Quite possibly the worst insult is the proposal to convert the Confederate museum to a civil rights museum. This is flatly against the law as the purpose of the park is a memorial to the Confederacy and a natural resource preserve. What would be the response if a bust of John B. Gordon were proposed for the King Center?

While the board is not elected, if the board members were to hear from the vast majority of Georgia’s citizens who are doubtless opposed to the radical proposals of groups such as the Stone Mountain Action Coalition (SMAC) it might serve to give them the moral courage to “just say no.”

There is the old Roman adage that “Silence implies consent.” For decades, the “Silent Majority” has been just that. It is time that silence ends. The success of the snowflake politically correct crowd should be a guide to the rest of us. Regrettably, the squeaky wheel gets the grease.

For some time now I have been asked by people “what can I do?” Here is are few simple and painless steps that may have results beyond your wildest dreams.

To paraphrase Nancy Reagan, “Just say no.” And say it loudly and frequently.

Politicians circulate out in public from time to time seeking your vote. Tell them you are a one issue Heritage voter. What proactive steps will they take to defend our Heritage?

While the woke are economic illiterates, many of their fellow travelers prostrate themselves before the Golden Calf. If you see a company that is behaving in a heritage hating fashion don’t do any business with them. And tell your friends to abstain as well. If enough people do that, they will follow the money and stop their anti-social behavior.

Our Revolutionary War and Confederate ancestors marched through snow without footwear. Their path was marked by blood. We are not asked to face shot or shell.

But if we took these elementary steps there are enough of us to make a difference.

In Memory of Commander Wayne Willingham (General William J. Hardee 1397)

Sept. 20, 2025

With heavy hearts, we announce the passing of Wayne Willingham, a distinguished historian and embodiment of Southern grace, who left us on September 20, 2025. He was a man whose life was devoted to preserving the memories of the Civil War, and treating every person with respect and kindness.

Wayne was born and raised in the South, where he spent his entire life in Paulding County, steeped in its traditions, steeped in its history. From his earliest days, he displayed a curiosity about bygone eras—listening to elders talk of days long past, exploring dusty archives, and reading every history book he could find. This passion blossomed into a lifelong love for the Sons of Confederate Veterans. Wayne was not only a member, but for the past twenty-nine years, served as Commander of the William J. Hardee Camp. Wayne began his journey as a mason with the Beulah lodge before transferring to the Dallas Lodge. Whether as a teacher, writer, or speaker, he worked tirelessly to illuminate the past—not to romanticize it, but to reckon with it honestly, to draw from it lessons, and to pass it forward so that others might understand who we are and where we came from.

As a historian, Wayne earned the admiration of peers and the gratitude of students. His lectures were more than recitations of facts—they were stories, filled with local color, moral insight, and a profound sense of place. He had a gift for making history feel alive: the creak of old floorboards, the hush of a chapel in a moonlit evening, the daring and folly of people whose choices set the path we now walk. He contributed to many published books on the civil war, gave public talks, mentored young scholars, and volunteered with historical societies, always insisting that knowing one’s roots can ground us in humility even as it inspires hope.

More than anything, Wayne loved his family, especially his nieces and nephews. He is survived by his sisters: Debbie Parish and Donna Ketchum; brothers and sisters in law: Wesley (Kathy) Willingham and Jeff (Shari) Willingham. His nieces and nephews: Jason (Erica), Josh (Jena) and Jeremy (Amanda) Parish. Amanda (Dwight) Garrett, Tyler (Madison), Emily, Zachary and Molly Willingham, great nieces and nephews, which all referred to him as “Uncle Wayne”; Jonah, Abbey, Sam, Jaleigh, Jax, Jasper, Jacie, Liam and Lainey Parish.

Wayne is preceded in death by his parents: Doy and Annie Jean Willingham, sister: Sharon Willingham as well as his brothers in law: Bill Ketchum and Larry Parish.

Wayne’s legacy wasn’t only scholarly. He was, in every measure, a true Southern gentleman

INTRODUCTION OF THE GEORGIA DIVISION GUARDIAN PROGRAM

Gentlemen,

It's my pleasure to announce the creation of the Georgia Division Guardian Program. I have also appointed Commander Ron Edge of the Cherokee Legion Camp #914 as the Director of the program.

Ron came to me a few months ago with a desire to create a Division Guardian Program, I was a bit reluctant being there was an SCV National Guardian program, but the positives of having a Division program were well worth the efforts.

The Guardian program is an opportunity to adopt a Confederate Veteran(s) grave site, to be the official caretaker of that Veteran or Veterans final resting place. A Guardian will be responsible for documenting the grave(s), along with the cleaning, restoration, and caretaking of the grave(s) site to bring dignity back to the grave(s) site and maintaining an honorable final resting place for that Veteran.

Each Guardian will have to submit an application to Commander Edge through the Division HQ Office. Upon approval, the Guardian will receive a Guardian crest pin (designed by Ron Edge) and a Guardian certificate. The attached handbook explains the details of the program.

It's a wonderful and rewarding program, being a Guardian is truly a noble task. I would encourage all members and supporters to find a Veterans' final resting place and be the Guardian of that Soldier who sacrificed their all in defense of their family, home, and Country.

Please contact Commander Ron Edge for any questions:

CAMP RECRUITMENT
INDEX CARDS INITIATIVE

GEORGIA DIVISION
SONS OF CONFEDERATE
VETERANS
GENERAL CORRESPONDENCE

Issued by: GEORGIA DIVISION COMMANDER - Timothy Pilgrim

October 16, 2025

Camp Recruitment Index Cards

Gentlemen,

9th Brigade Commander Jack Cowart came up with the idea of using index recruitment cards for his Camps in the 9th Brigade for general recruitment efforts and handing out at civil events, parades and all occasions.

The effort as been a great success in the 9th Brigade and we would like to introduce this recruitment tool to the rest of the Georgia Division.

Benefits for using index cards stock:

- Business cards are often lost or filed away.
- Artwork and graphics are eye catching.
- Larger font is easier to read.
- Glossy finish attracts attention.

Seaborn Printing in Bainbridge has work the SCV out a printing deal that is very affordable:

- Set up fee = $20
- Qty. 500 = $146.00
- Qty. 1,000 = $160.00

Below are some examples that other Georgia Division Camps are using.

Also, below is some sample graphics that you may want to consider using. When designing your card any graphic that you have can be used.

If your Camp is interested in getting some recruitment cards made go ahead and predesign how you want it to look. If you want different graphics than what is provided in the below list get the graphics you want to use ready.

Also go ahead and write down what you want printed on the card, Camp name, list of officers and their contract information. Maybe short information on the Camp's history/namesake or SCV Charge.

Then contact Jack Cowart, myself or printer directly at:

Jack Cowart, jackcsa@yahoo.com or 229.379.6714

*Not for fame or reward
Not for place or for rank
Not lured by ambition
Or goaded by necessity
But in simple
Obedience to duty
As they understood it
These men suffered all
Sacrificed all
Dared all-and died*

Merry Christmas and a blessed New Year
